

COX NOMINATED ON 44TH

BALLOT JAM
IS BLASTED
BY PALMER

Turnover on 38th Greases Slide for Cox—McAdoo Clan Dies Game.

San Francisco, Cal., July 6.—The debate of Attorney General Palmer delegates after the 38th ballot dislodged the keystone of the convention jam, although for a time it appeared that the deadlock between McAdoo and Cox would continue indefinitely.

With 211 Palmer delegates, on the 38th call, turned loose, McAdoo gained 54 1/2 votes on the 39th ballot and Cox 65, with one Louisiana and 73 Pennsylvania delegates staying by the attorney general.
In that call McAdoo made his major gain in taking Georgia's delegates from the Palmer column, while he gained 19 from Massachusetts, himself 33 of her 36 with others coming from other Palmer men. On the next, the 40th ballot, Cox climbed from 468 1/2 to 490, McAdoo from 440 to 467, while Palmer dived to 19, including 18 delegates from his home state and the one Louisiana.

Tenn. Firm for Davis.

McAdoo held the Georgia block for that and the succeeding ballot also. But Cox scooped up scattering delegates from the McAdoo column from Illinois, Washington and other spots of the McAdoo organization. Both sides watched in vain for Tennessee to swing her 24 votes from Davis. They remained with the ambassador's column until the 41st ballot.

The 41st ballot showed a net gain for Cox of one-half vote for Cox and one-half vote for McAdoo.
Cox took four votes from Pennsylvania. In the first break of Pennsylvania from Palmer, McAdoo got the Cox's 12, but both got a few more later.

Both leaders were under the 500 mark on the 41st ballot at midnight, with each slipping into the other's camp and the Davis voters balancing out. On the succeeding ballot, Cox made his first big gain which put him in the lead. Cox gained 43 1/2 votes on the 42nd ballot, rose on the next to 540 1/2, or only 1 1/2 less than a majority of the convention, while McAdoo dropped from 460 to 427.

Georgia Starts Slide.

Then Georgia started the slide toward Cox by swinging 28 solid votes from McAdoo. Cox picked up more scattering votes, including four Davis delegates in Michigan.

McAdoo, however, still held the bulk of the Pennsylvanians. Cox lost 20 over a majority on the 43rd ballot, getting 568, as against 540 1/2 on the previous roll call. McAdoo dropped 15 on the 43rd, going from 412 to 397. Cox's principal gains were a solid vote from Louisiana, a half dozen from McAdoo delegates from Virginia, which previously had returned to Senator Harrison. On that ballot also Cox won away numerous scattering votes from McAdoo.

The final ballot began at 1:15 a.
m. Almost from the start, Cox won taking single and double votes from the McAdoo delegations.
The real break developed when Florida delegates which had been cast for McAdoo for many ballots swung over and gave Cox a solid 12.

Indiana Flips to Cox.

Cox held Indiana intact, gained more Illinoisans from McAdoo and then Tom Taggart announced a solid block of 30 from Indiana for Cox, taking 10 from McAdoo.
Cox likewise gave up three Louisiana votes and made it 26 solid votes. Louisiana gave another solid block.

Maryland followed, after giving McAdoo 5 1/2 and Cox 8 1/2. Massachusetts then rolled up 35 of her votes to Cox, who also gained more from Missouri; while five delegates from Nebraska, which had been enrolling for McAdoo for many ballots, also turned to Cox.
Pennsylvania then cast leaving only four to McAdoo, as compared to 47 on the preceding even, then gave eight solid to Cox; Virginia gave eight more; Wisconsin turned 16 more, while Ohio gave 10 to Cox, while the Ohio delegates, which had been dividing their vote, went in a solid block to the nominee.

The Final Charge.

Following a call after the terrible Maryland and Michigan, which had passed, possibly to the results of the final ballot.

With the Cox tide in flood, the McAdoo change was announced the long battle ended with the solid motion for a unanimous

Choice of Democrats

GOVERNOR JAMES M. COX.

HARDING GLAD TO HAVE ANOTHER OHIOAN FOR RIVAL, BUT ASSERTS STATE G. O. P. PLANS ARE INTACT

Marion, Ohio, July 6.—Senator Harding, the Republican presidential nominee, in a statement today said Governor Cox deserved the Democratic presidential nomination, but added that his selection would not change the Republican campaign plans in Ohio in any way.
The statement was given out by the senator today shortly after he had learned from newspaper correspondents of the governor's selection. The senator, at the same time, also sent Governor Cox a telegram congratulating him in his success.

Praises Rival Editor.

"Governor Cox's nomination," Senator Harding said, "is an added consideration shown to our great state of Ohio for which I am glad, and give assurance that finally a newspaper man is to be made the nation's chief executive."

"Governor Cox deserves his notable victory at San Francisco. His nomination will not change our activities in any way in Ohio. It is a great party contest before us, to be fought on great principles involved, and neither place of residence nor personality will have any marked influence on the result."

Harding Arrives Home.

Marion, Ohio, July 6.—Senator
Harding, the Republican presidential nominee, had no engagements scheduled for today, but planned to devote himself exclusively to clearing away a great mass of correspondence and other work that had accumulated since he left Washington last Saturday to motor home.

Despite a strenuous day through which he passed yesterday, in connection with the welcoming in honor of his homecoming, the senator

IF VERMONT FAILS
SUFFS MAY PICKET
HARDING HOME

Marion, Ohio, July 6.—Plans for picketing Senator Harding's home and headquarters here in case Vermont fails to ratify the federal suffrage amendment are being made by suffrage leaders, it has become known.

It is proposed to establish picket headquarters in Delaware, 20 miles from here, from which the militants will send out picketing parties each day by automobile. It is understood the suffragist leaders have conditionally taken over one of the fraternity houses of Ohio Wesleyan university for headquarters. The house will accommodate 36 persons.

It is understood the pickets were unable to obtain adequate quarters here.

CARTOON PROPHEC.

Columbus, Ohio, July 6.—In a congratulatory telegram to Governor Cox, received at the governor's office here today from Senator Harding, the Republican nominee, Senator Harding said:

"I recall a much remarked cartoon which portrayed you and me, as newboys contesting for the White house delivery. It seems to have been prophetic.
As an Ohioan and a fellow publisher I congratulate you on your notable victory."

was up early and resumed his work with enthusiasm.

During the next few days, Senator Harding plans to devote much of his time in the quietude of his residence to the actual preparation of his speech of acceptance.

Ever since his nomination he has been accumulating material for this purpose and now has it in such shape that he needs only to put his ideas on paper.

Press Accommodations.

Owing to the necessity for more space in the neighboring buildings next door to the Harding home, plans for setting aside several rooms for the use of the newspaper correspondents has been abandoned. Instead a 1-story temporary building is to be constructed immediately back of the senator's home to be used by the newspaper men as press rooms, and work on the building is to begin at once.

George Christman, the senator's secretary, expects it to be completed in about three days.

PRINCE OF WALES ESCAPES HARM AS
TRAIN IS WRECKED

London, July 6.—Albert Edward, Prince of Wales, emerged unscathed and smiling, through the window of an overturned car when his train was wrecked yesterday, says a dispatch from Perth, Australia, to the London Times.

The accident occurred near Bridgetown, West Australia, says the report.

BEST STUNT FLYER
KILLED BY A FALL
Washington, July 6.—Leaving Bolling field here yesterday to participate in a Fourth of July celebration at Baltimore, Lieutenant Pat Logan, said by aviation officers here to have been one of the best "stunt" fliers in the country, fell 2,000 feet at Dandalk field. He sustained a fractured skull which caused his death an hour later.

V. P. ACTION IS NEXT AT

Roosevelt, Gov. Stewart,
"Ham" Lewis and Others Get Mention

Auditorium, San Francisco, Calif., July 6.—No slate for the vice presidency appeared over-night and the nomination was apparently open on the floor of the convention when it resembled.

The nomination of Governor Cox, however, brought out suggestions which had been talked over for use in the event of his choice.

Many leaders thought that if the vice presidential nomination went to the east, Franklin D. Roosevelt of New York, assistant secretary of the navy, led the list.

In considering the middle west, they were looking toward Joseph E.
Davies of Wisconsin, former chairman of the federal trade commission, and one time chairman of the Democratic national committee.

In the far west they were considering Governor Samuel V. Stewart of Montana.

The session called for noon today was delayed by a season of congratulations for which nobody had time early this morning when the convention adjourned.

Senator Walsh of Montana, it became known as the convention was assembling, would place Governor Stewart of Montana, in nomination for the vice presidency. Under the rules of the convention the nomination speeches for vice presidential candidates were limited to 10 minutes.

It seemed probable that beside the names of Mr. Roosevelt, Governor Stewart and Mr. Davies, the name of James Hamilton would go before the convention.

Dunne for Lewis.

Although called to meet at noon the convention, recovering from its long sessions of the presidential fight, was slow in starting. Former Governor Dunne of Illinois, was picked to place Mr. Lewis in nomination, and General Tyson's sponsor will be Harvey Hannah of Nashville, Tennessee.

At noon Judge E. H. Moore of Youngstown, Ohio, convention manager for Governor Cox, still was trying to reach the nominee over the long distance telephone to learn if he had any choice for vice presidential nominee.

The nominating of a presidential candidate wound up the real business so far as scores of delegates and alternates were concerned and the outgoing train had a great part of the convention force aboard them. Somebody suggested that the outgoing trains be pulled.

Galleries Vacant, Too.

The galleries, too, had lost a great deal of their interest and there were thousands of empty seats.

Secretary Roosevelt, when told that he looked like a good prospect for the vice presidential nomination, said:

"I can not afford the honor. I have five children."

Mr. Roosevelt discouraged friends who wanted to place him in nomination saying he did not care to have his name "put up." He gave no intimation that he would refuse if it "came up."

There was a great deal of Roosevelt talk.

Davis Is Mentioned.

John W. Davis, ambassador to Great Britain, whose name remained on the list of candidates to the last, was being talked of for the vice presidential nomination, too, but the argument used against it was that he came from a state too close to Ohio.

Vice President Marshall issued the statement regarding the nomination of Governor Cox:

"I know Governor Cox. I know he has never failed to follow the banner of Democracy. He is a Democrat. I know him to be a fearless and courageous executive."

KISS FOR WIFE ONLY SHOW OF
COX EMOTIONS

Tribute to Life Mate First Act on Hearing News in Own Dayton, Ohio, Newspaper Office.

Dayton, Ohio, July 6.—Governor James M. Cox, Democratic presidential nominee, will go to Middletown, Ohio, tonight to receive the congratulations of "home folk" there, with whom he attended school and worked when a young man.

Dayton, Ohio, July 6.—Governor James M. Cox, who was nominated for the presidency by the Democratic national convention early today, declined to make a statement regarding his victory until after he has received notification from the convention.

The governor received the news of his nomination in his newspaper office, the Dayton News, surrounded by fellow newspaper workers and a few relatives and intimate friends.

When the Associated Press wires flashed the news of his nomination, his first act was to cross the floor and kiss his wife.

He then left the building, walked a few blocks to the home of his closest friend, John A. McMahon, aged 87, dean of Dayton lawyers, to whom he wished personally to give the news.

Mrs. Cox was highly elated over the nomination of her husband and immediately sent a message to her father, Thomas P. Blair of Chicago.
Governor Cox planned to visit the grave of his mother this morning. His mother, Mrs. Gilbert Cox, died at the age of 85, several years ago. She lived to see him inaugurated governor for a first term.

Most of the Daytonites were asleep when the "flash" came announcing that Governor Cox had been nominated on the 44th ballot.
They did not know that their fellow townsman had received the highest honor of the Democratic party until they read their newspapers at breakfast and on their way to work.

Honor Talk of Town.

The honor conferred upon Governor Cox was the talk of the town, but late this morning, no movement had been started for an official justification. Business seemed to progress much as usual. Groups of men and women stood on street corners, here and there, and enthusiastically discussed the event and eagerly read the latest returns in the newspapers.

Hundreds of congratulatory telegrams were being received this morning. As the day advanced they became more numerous. Many of them were from his workers and delegates at San Francisco.

Soon after the news of "a nomination was received, Governor and Mrs. Cox, who had remained up all night, receiving returns, left for their home, "Trail's End," near Dayton. The governor expected to take a brief rest and then return to his newspaper office.

Plan Celebration.

During the morning, meetings were held by officials of the Dayton Chamber of Commerce, who let it become known they were planning a huge jollification meeting, probably tonight. When the governor arrived at his newspaper office he was presented with resolutions of congratulations from the union printers on the paper.

The resolutions pledged united support and continued:

"We recognize the fact that you have come from the ranks of the workers, and therefore, are in every way able to understand the needs and requirements of the man who toils."

The governor will address his fellow townsmen, most of whom he can call by their first names, at a town mass meeting. He will motor there from Dayton with friends.

Friends from Middletown came to Dayton to personally request the presence of the governor at the jollification meeting tonight.

The Democratic nominee began his newspaper career in Middletown as a newsboy, later working as a printer's devil, and teaching night school. It was there that he met Congressman Paul Borg, tobacco king, who at the time was a

NAMING OF BUCKEYE FAVORITE SON

Colorado Bolt to Cox Clinches Honor on Final Ballot—Rules Flung Aside for Victor With Vote Only 702 1-2 to 266 1-2 for McAdoo—Palmer's Withdrawal on 38th Yields Landslide to Ohio Governor That Smooth-ers Former Secretary With Gathering Impetus.

San Francisco, July 6.—James M. Cox, three times governor of Ohio, was nominated for the presidency early this morning by the Democratic national convention in the breakup of one of the most prolonged deadlocks in the history of national political parties.

It took 44 ballots to make a choice and it was not until the 38th when Attorney General Palmer withdrew from the race, that the long succession of roll calls showed any definite trend.

In the turn-over of the Palmer delegates, Cox gained the advantage over William G. McAdoo, his rival for first place, since early in the balloting.

Vice President Next.
With its choice made, the convention adjourned until noon today to name a candidate for the vice presidency.

Should it be decided to give second place on the ticket to the east, Franklin D. Roosevelt of New York, assistant secretary of the navy, seemed to be a favorite; but if the nomination goes to the west, there are several possibilities talked about by the leaders.

roll call, the motion to suspend the rules and make the nomination unanimous had been carried.

WILSON SENDS
GOVERNOR COX
FELICITATIONS

Columbus, Ohio, July 6.—Congratulations from President Wilson were received by Governor Cox this morning upon his nomination. The message from the White house received at the governor's office in Columbus this morning and transmitted to his home at Dayton, read:
"Please accept my hearty congratulations and cordial best wishes."
(Signed) "WOODROW WILSON."

President Wilson's telegram of congratulations was among the first of 100 or more received this morning at the Ohio executive offices.
There were dozens from San Francisco including one from Joseph T. Robinson, convention chairman, one signed "The Georgia delegation," another from C. B. Watson, chairman of the West Virginia delegation and from Governor S. V.
Stewart of Montana, pledging heartiest support, one from W. J. Cochran, director of publicity for the Democratic convention, read, "The magnificent way in which your nomination was won in good-tempered contests, prefigures great victory in November."

A wire from the Democratic state central committee of California pledged "enthusiastic support" and promised "California for Cox in November."

M'ADOO HAPPY
HE LOST RACE;
WIFE IS, TOO

Huntington, N. Y., July 6.—When William G. McAdoo was informed upon rising this morning that Governor James M. Cox of Ohio had been nominated as the Democratic candidate for the presidency, his only comment was:

"I am relieved and delighted that the call did not come to me."
Mr. McAdoo showed every evidence that he was pleased and explained he would have a statement to make later in the day.

Mrs. McAdoo, who was by her husband's side, said:
"That's great!"
Before leaving for his New York office in his automobile, Mr. McAdoo called the newspapermen and asked:

"Will you say this for me: I'm eternally grateful to my friends for their support."

ing at the Ohio executive offices.
There were dozens from San Francisco including one from Joseph
T. Robinson, convention chairman,
one signed "The Georgia delegation," another from C. B. Watson, chairman of the West Virginia delegation and from Governor S. V.
Stewart of Montana, pledging heartiest support, one from W. J. Cochran, director of publicity for the
nomination was won in good-tempered contests, prefigures great victory in November."

HE LOST RACE;

William G. McAdoo was informed
upon rising this morning that Gov-
been nominated as the Democratic
only comment was:

"I am relieved and delighted that
the call did not come to me."
Mr. McAdoo showed every evidence that he was pleased and ex-
to make later in the day.

Mrs. McAdoo, who was by her husband's side, said:
"That's great!"
Before leaving for his New York
office in his automobile, Mr. McAdoo
asked:

their support."
